1. PALMA DE MALLORCA

Palma de Mallorca has recently headed the list of "the best cities to live in the world", made by a recognized international newspaper, highlighting its "picturesque old town", its "slow charm" and the variety of luxury shops the city has. A city in a beautiful island in which it emphasizes its easy access and the short distance to the one that is of the airport and of beautiful Mediterranean beaches.

Palma, proudly displays important artistic and architectural monuments, such as the Cathedral of Santa María, a Gothic landmark begun in the 13th century that dominates the Bay, the adjacent Almudaina, an Arab-style fortress converted into a royal residence, or, the Bellver Castle, a medieval fortress with a distinctive circular shape.

Palma has it all, from shops, international restaurants, historical monuments, museums, impressive architecture and a vibrant night scene.

2. SANT JAUME AND ITS SURROUNDINGS

The Sant Jaume Boutique Hotel stands in the heart of the old quarter of Palma on one of the city's oldest streets nestled between two important historic buildings: the Church of Sant Jaume and Santa Magdalena Convent. Both are examples of fifteenth-century Gothic architecture still preserved on the island.

The hotel occupies a house dating from the eighteenth century. On the ground floor, you will find the reception, hallway, lobby, restaurant, cocktail lounge and spa. The hotel rooms are on the three storeys above it. The fourth floor provides a sundeck with a plunge pool, designer loungers, showers and stunning views of the old quarter and the cathedral. From here our guests can marvel at life in Palma from up high.

The Sant Jaume hotel is not far from Paseo del Borne, the city's best and most luxurious shopping area, and a five-minute walk from the Paseo Marítimo promenade. The hotel's prime location is undoubtedly one of its main attractions.
